HOMESTAYS

Homestays with French families are also available at around 450 Euros per month, including breakfast and, sometimes, depending on the type of home stay, 3 evening meals a week. If you choose this type of accommodation you must inform the International Office well in advance.

Advice on staying in a Home stay:

If you are staying with a French family, you will find below some tips that will make life more pleasant for yourself and the host family. Some are just common sense; others derive from cultural differences and could cause difficulties.

We would like to stress the fact that the great majority of students have little or no trouble whatsoever adjusting to the differences in life style they experience in their housing. Most students actually enjoy it as it remains the best way to a deep cultural immersion. Problems, when they do arise, are usually related to misunderstandings or lack of communication. Therefore, if you are confronted with problems in your housing, please inform the international office straight away.

- Politeness:

As a rule, the French are not casual or "laid back". The custom of behaving and responding in certain ways is traditional and highly valued. When you see your landlady, acknowledge her presence, "Bonjour Madame", and use "vous". "S'il vous plait" and "Merci" should be part of every request or enquiry.

- Tidiness and order:

You are responsible for keeping your room and possessions in order and your landlady will appreciate – if not require- tidiness.

- Lights and heating:

One simple rule: turn off lights if you do not need them or when you leave a room; close doors behind you as energy is quite expensive in France. Students in independent housing or apartments should ask where the fuse box is and how to replace fuses.

- Laundry:

Your landlady will inform you where the nearest Laundromat / laundrette is, as in general you will not be able to use the family washing machine.

- Telephone:

You may receive incoming calls. Barring emergencies, you should not receive calls after 9pm. Also please remind your prospective callers of the time difference between Europe and the rest of the world, and avoid people calling with reversed charges. For calls within France you can buy a calling card at any Tabac store and use it at any local telephone. Many students use their cell phones to avoid using their host families' phone.

- Cooking and kitchen privileges:

The terms of the housing contract call for small kitchen privileges which mean that you should have room in the refrigerator and that you should have an opportunity to prepare small meals. Please always remember to leave the kitchen clean after use.

- Guests:

Most landladies will not mind if you have occasional visitors, provided they are informed about what is going on in their own homes. However, overnight guests are not generally tolerated.

APARTMENT TO SHARE WITH OTHERS / STUDIO FLAT

Due to the difficulty of finding flats available for just a few months it is only possible for students staying at least 8 months in Dijon to live in a flat.

The International Office can help students to find accommodation in advance by providing a list of apartments for rent. Afterwards students themselves should contact the owner of the building and arrange their accommodation. Rent for a furnished room ("meublé") varies between 350 Euros and 450 Euros per month, plus utilities. You may also have to pay a deposit corresponding to one month's rent as well as an insurance fee.

Practical information:

A studio is a one room flat with kitchenette and bathroom

T1 is quite like a studio but a little bit bigger

T2 is a flat with 2 independent rooms; kitchen, bathroom, one bedroom and one living room

T3 is a flat with 3 independent rooms; kitchen, bathroom, two bedrooms and one living room

T4 is a flat with 4 independent rooms; kitchen, bathroom, three bedrooms and one living room

ACCOMMODATION:

In Europe the common voltage is 220V. Also the electrical plugs are different (plugs with 2 pins). To change the voltage to 220V you need a converter which can be purchased in your home county or in France. You also need European adapter plugs to allow converters or dual voltage appliances to be plugged into outlets in Europe.
